

NO LIQUOR FOR FRUIT CAKE

Yost Law Interferes With West Virginia Christmas Cooking.

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 8.—Housewives of West Virginia, have discovered that fruit cake which in previous years graced their tables on Christmas is now under the ban, or at least, the old way of making it is taboo under the Yost State Prohibition law.

Home-made fruit cake requires at least one pint of whiskey or rum. While it is not unlawful for a resident of this State to have a pint of whiskey, providing he brings it into the State himself, and for his personal use, it is unlawful to invite friends to his home to partake of intoxicants.

POPE'S ALLOCATION

Pontiff Declares He Has Been Deprived of Liberty of Governing The Church

Rome, Dec. 8.—Pope Benedict, in his allocation delivered before the secret consistory Monday, dwelt upon the misfortunes which the war has brought upon the holy see and referred to his previous complaint that the pontiff had been deprived of the liberty necessary for the government of the church. He said that some of the ambassadors and ministers, by reason of such a state of events, had left the vatican "in order to protect their personal dignity and the prerogatives of their office."

"Certainly those who govern Italy are not wanting in good intentions to eliminate the inconveniences," said the pontiff, "but this of itself clearly demonstrates that the position of the pontiff is dependent upon the civil authorities and that with a change of men and circumstances, the position itself might change for the worse."

The following semi-official communication has been published by the Italian government respecting the Pope's allocation:

"The words of the pontiff concerning ambassadors and ministers accredited to the holy see being obliged to leave in order to protect their personal dignity must come from incorrect information given to his holiness."

"The truth is, the representatives of the central empires, despite the most explicit and precise assurance from the Italian government concerning the protection of their personal safety, rights and privileges granted by law, insisted upon leaving Rome of their own free will."

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mrs. A. C. Chappell, of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good."

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together."

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it. Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
